

Reaching Out: A Conference on Social Exclusion – Provisional agenda

PLACES ARE LIMITED SO REGISTER NOW TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT

Brighton conference – 20 March

From c. 9.30	Registration and coffee
10.00-10.15	Welcome and opening remarks Naomi Eisenstadt, Director, Social Exclusion Task Force
10.15-10.35	Reaching Out - key note speech Hilary Armstrong, Cabinet Minister for Social Exclusion
10.35-10:55	Health-led parenting pilots Kate Billingham, Deputy Chief Nursing Officer, Department of Health
10.55 – 11.15	Systems reform – improving outcomes for the socially excluded Julian Corner, Chief Executive, Revolving Doors Agency
11.15 – 11.35	Socially excluded families Louise Casey, Government Co-ordinator for Respect
11.35-12.00	Q&A with the panel
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 13.20	Introduction to the Families At-Risk Review Pat McFadden, Parliamentary Secretary, Cabinet Office
13.20-15.45 (coffee break half way through)	3 workshops to discuss themes of the Families At-Risk Review Choose one of: - economic well-being - health and family life - staying safe & communities Presentations followed by facilitated discussions. Speakers include Parenting UK, Alcohol Concern and Communities that Care.
15.45-16.00	Plenary & closing remarks Naomi Eisenstadt, Director, Social Exclusion Task Force
16.00	Close

Leeds conference – 26 March

From c. 9.30am	Registration and coffee
10.15-10.30	Welcome and opening remarks Naomi Eisenstadt, Director, Social Exclusion Task Force
10.30-10.45	Reaching Out - key note speech Hilary Armstrong, Cabinet Minister for Social Exclusion
10.45-11.05	Health-led parenting pilots Kate Billingham, Deputy Chief Nursing Officer, Department of Health
11.05 – 11.25	Systems reform – improving outcomes for the socially excluded Julian Corner, Chief Executive, Revolving Doors Agency
11.30 – 11.50	Socially excluded families Claire Phillips, Director of Policy, Office of the Children’s Commissioner
11.50-12.30	Q&A with the panel
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 13.45	Introduction to the Families At-Risk Review Naomi Eisenstadt
13.45-15.45 (coffee break half way through)	3 workshops to discuss themes of the Families At-Risk Review Choose one of: - economic well-being - health and family life - staying safe & communities Presentations followed by facilitated discussions. Speakers include Rethink, Crisis and Communities that Care.
15.45-16.00	Plenary & closing remarks Pat McFadden, Parliamentary Secretary, Cabinet Office
16.00	Close

Birmingham – 28 March (with GO West Midlands)

From 9.30am	Registration and coffee
10.00-10.15	Welcome and opening remarks Naomi Eisenstadt, Director, Social Exclusion Task Force Trudi Elliott, Regional Director, GOWM
10.15-10.35	Reaching Out - key note speech Hilary Armstrong, Cabinet Minister for Social Exclusion
10.40–11.00	Adults facing chronic exclusion Lord Victor Adebawale, Chief Executive, Turning Point
11.00– 11.20	Systems reform – improving outcomes for the socially excluded Professor Sir Ian Kennedy, Chair of Healthcare Commission
11.20-11.40	Coffee break
11.40 – 12.00	Socially excluded families Polly Toynbee, Guardian columnist and broadcaster
12.00-12.30	Q&A with the panel
12.30-13.00	The Families At-Risk Review Beverley Hughes, Minister for Children, Young People and Families
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 14.15	Introduction to the workshops Naomi Eisenstadt, Trudi Elliott
14.15-16.15 (coffee break half way through)	Workshops to discuss themes of the Families At-Risk Review Choose one of: - economic well-being - health and family life - staying safe & communities Presentations followed by facilitated discussions. Speakers include Sainsbury Centre for Mental Health, Drug Scope and NCH, the children’s charity. OR: Workshop with a regional focus How local partners can work together to make a difference for children and young people in deprived areas of the West Midlands
16.15-16.30	Plenary & closing remarks Pat McFadden, Parliamentary Secretary, Cabinet Office
16.30	Close